Eminent Doctors Praise its Ingredients.

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhœa; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhœa (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anæmic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: "Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhœa (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named indients and cures the diseases for which y are recommended.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Anti-Jewish Riots.

Investigation proves that both the police and the soldiers participated in the anti-Jewish riots in Bialystok, Russia.

Victims of the massacre were treated in a horribly brutal manner, some being clubbed and beaten until their bodies were like pulp.

Every home of a Jew was sacked. The front doors of Christians' houses were marked with crosses.

It is reported that the constitutional democrats have determined to break with the government within a few days.

The butchers of St. Petersburg will join the bakers in the strike.

Two regiments of infantry and two batteries of artillery have been hurried to Cronstadt to suppress mutiny among the sailors and marines there.

Anarchy and terrorism increase in the interior provinces as the strikes in the cities and the peasant risings in the country spread.

Parliament's bold act of defiance in refusing to be prorogued, which became known in St Petersburg, cuts the ground from under the government's feet. The constitutional democrats, who constitute a great majority, have definitely decided to refuse to obey the order to take a recess in case the government ventures on this step.

A rumor was current in the lobbies of the House yesterday that the cabinet, at a session held Sunday at Peterhof, had decided, in view of the unanimous action of the House, not to attempt to declare a recess.

The constitutional democrats seem almost ready to throw in their lot with the revolutionists. The popular agitation is so great that at a caucus, lasting three mornings, the question of changing the party's tactics and abandoning any further attempt to postpone an open rupture with the government was seriously debated.

MM. Roditcheff and Nabokoff, leaders of the constitutional democrats in the lower house, led the radical wing, urging the absolute necessity of keeping pace with the revolutionary movement and insisting that unless they moved forward to battle immediately they would be overwhelmed and left stranded. Prof. Milukoff, M. Vinaver, and others counseled caution, saying it was not yet time to bend to the storm, but the radicals were in the majority.

The lower house yesterday decided to refer the entire agrarian question to a commission with ninety-nine members, who will be elected to-day

The intransigeant position of the Russian nobility is made manifest in the address to the throne adopted by the Nobles' Congress. While it contains honeyed words of solicitude for the peasants as "brothers," it does not yield an iota of the question of the expropriation of land.

Robber Saved from Mob.

The attempt of an Italian brigand to rob a woman of a pair of diamond earrings nearly cost two lives in New York yesterday. The would-be robber's victim was terribly cut about the face and head by a keen-edged knife with which the thief attempted to cut the jewels from the woman's ears, and scarcely five minutes later the robber himself and a policeman who had arrested him were fighting for the former's life against a crowd of hundreds of Hebrews, who sought to avenge the assault. The robber was kicked and stoned and repeatedly knocked down before the policeman succeeded in safely landing him in a cell.

The victim of the assault was Mrs. Rebecca Kupfer and the assailant Joseph Carpaccia. He is 23 years old and has been in this country about four months. Mrs. Kupfer is 24 years old. She had been calling on friends Sunday night and was returning through Houston street to her home early yesterday morning, when Carpaccia attacked her. Her screams attracted a crowd, and with it came a policeman. He quickly subdued Carpaccia and was starting for the station-house, when the crowd realized the extent of Mrs. Kuyfer's injuries and sprang upon the prisoner. Hundreds of Hebrews poured from the tenement-houses in the vicinity and swarmed around the policeman and his prisoner. At first they merely begged the policeman to give the man up to them, that they might mete out to him the punishment which they thought he deserved.

The policeman called for assistance and two more patrolmen joined him. Steadily the crowd grew larger and larger and more clamorous for the Italian's summary punishment At Delancey and Suffolk streets a man struck Carpaccia in the ear. He went down. The officers jerked him to his feet and pushed on through the crowd. At Delancy and Eldridge streets Carpaccia was again knocked down by blows from behind. This time he was so stunned that he could not rise and was carried the rest of the way to the station. Both his eyes were blackened and his face and head were covered with bruises. He was locked up on charges of highway robbery and felonious assault. Mrs Kupfer will recover.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful; till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons', Druggists.

WOMEN WHO CHARM

HEALTH IS THE FIRST ESSENTIAL

It Helps Women to Win and Hold Men's Admiration, Respect and Love

Woman's greatest gift is the power to inspire admiration, respect, and love. There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature.

Mrs. Chas. F. Brown

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study. At the first indication of ill-health, painful or irregular periods, headache or backache, secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For nine years I dragged through a miserable existence, suffering with inflammation and female weakness and worn out with pain and weariness. I one day noticed a statement by a woman suffering as I was, but who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I determined to try it. At the end of three months I was a different woman. Every one remarked about it, and my husband fell in love with me all over again. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound built up my entire system, cured the trouble, and I felt like a new woman. I am sure it will make every suffering woman strong, well and happy, as it has me."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, bloating (or flatulence), displacements, inflammation or ulceration, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, or nervous prostration may be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Little Girl Killed.

While endeavoring to cross Fayette street, between Patterson Park avenue and Madeira street, Baltimore, Irene Walbillich, aged six years, was struck and instantly killed by an eastbound Edmondson avenue car shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. An effort was made to stop the car, but the child was caught by the fender, and thrown under the wheels. Her body became so entangled in the running gear that it was necessary to jack up the car before the little one could be removed. The wheels of the car passed over the lower portion of the trunk of the body and the head and chest were badly crushed. The motorman, Robert Ewing, was a new man and was learning under the instruction of Motorman John English. Both men were on the front platform at the time of the accident. Sergeant Bullock, of the northeastern district, carried the body to the child's home. After being placed under arrest and taken to the northeastern police station, both motormen were released upon their own recognizance. Coroner Caruthers will conduct an investigation to inquire into the cause of death at the northeastern station tonight.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 19, 1906.

THE meat scandals have brought reproach upon this country in the eyes of the other nations of the world. When some American canned beef was served at a dinner Tuesday to the Royal Fusiliers near London the soldiers refused to eat it, some going without dinner and some buying meals elsewhere. Great indignation was expressed in this and other regiments at receiving rations of this character after the recent disclosures of American packing house methods. The foreign consuls of several European governments have been instructed to investigate personally the conditions of meat packing at Chicago and other American centres of the meat industry. Expressions of opinion in England and throughout Europe continue to be of the bitterest character in dealing with the packing house revelations. The sentiment is that nothing will restore confidence in American meat products until the men responsible for existing conditions are actually sent to prison. The Spectator says the two worlds have been shocked and infuriated, and that the Chicago packing houses "appear to combine pretty well all the characteristic evils which degrade our civilization." Never before has American commercial honor been so attacked abroad and the American people so criticised for neglecting their primary public duties.

IN his recent Phi Beta Kappa oration at Columbia, Charles Francis Adams, the distinguished Harvard alumnus and overseer, advocated the division of his alma mater and other big universities and colleges into a number of small colleges or groups, each under a master who could be in personal contact with every student, find out his aptitudes and deficiencies, and suggest or prescribe his course of study. He says that he has come to regard the elective system in its present form of development as a mischevious fad and denies that the average youth of 18 has any well defined or clearly developed aptitudes. In his judgment a college education should seek to cultivate all the sides of the mind, so that the intellectual, like the physical athlete, should be evenly developed. Most men of mature judgment will concur in Mr. Adams's conclusions on this subject.

WITH A salutatory kiss that awed into silence the 1,500 spectators in the Grand Central Palace, in New York, Alexander Berkman and Emma Goldman, high priest and priestess of anarchy, proclaimed to their adherents last Sunday that they had accepted each other as husband and wife on a limited contract and without transgressing the cardinal rule of their creed with a civil or religiously ceremony. The osculation was the climax to the welcome back to the fold extended to Berkman after his imprisonment of fourteen years in the Western Penitentiary of Pennsylvania for attempting to assassinate Henry C. Frick. This is a specimen Sunday performance in the metropolis, where anarchists and other outlaws gather to bid defiance to laws of God and man.

THE republicans will either have to hide their campaign book of 1902, or they will have to write a new chapter on the relation of the President to the trust. In 1902 they devoted four pages to reprinting what Mr. Roosevelt had been saying about "the great captains of industry" and "the strong and forceful men upon whom the success of business operations inevitably rests." They gleefully quoted his writings and speeches to the effect that antagonism to trusts is "wholly without warrant." In all this, they said, he was "conservative, but fearless." How will they mix this sort of talk with his muck rake speech, his oil trust message, his packing house articles and the like? What a dish of muck and honey they will have to serve up this year!

"ENOUGH has been developed, in my judgment," says the President, speaking of the packing house affair, "to call for immediate, thoroughgoing and radical enlargement of the powers of the government." One of the motives for the President's action is here disclosed. The radical enlargement of the powers of the Government, and, therefore, of the President, has always been dear to his heart. No democrat should sympathize with such a motive. The end does not justify the means, but, in this case, vitiates them

LUTHER BURBANK is now wrestling with the problem of improving the potato, and he has begun by planting specimens of twelve thousand different varieties. When these reach the flowerstage very likely a hybridization will occur which may yield happy results. From many points of view the experiment is extremely interesting. Even if a tuber which is more prolific than any now known is not produced, it will be a great achievement to develop one which is practically proof against rot and other disease.

SOME NATIONAL importance was given to the republican golden jubilee celebration in Philadelphia last night by the speech of Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, who took unequivocal ground against any revision of the tariff. In view of the recent contest in his own State, Iowa, and as the presumptive mouthpiece of the administration, the Secretary's strong advocacy of the standpat policy was interesting and may be supposed to represent President Roosevelt's present policy. Secretary Shaw devoted practically his entire speech to a defense of the protective tariff policy and took strong ground as a stand patter. Going back to the election of 1892 and the defeat of the republican party, he rehearsed the old-familiar story of the alleged calamities of the Cleveland administration, and thus worked down to the tariff question as it exists today.

SPEAKER CANNON at a banquet recently said "This country has been a h—ll of a success." The speaker has many sycophants who are ever ready to laugh at anything he says and he is disposed to encourage such by utterring expressions not in keeping with a representative man. The above is an example. The country has not been such a success when viewed through lenses other than those worn by Speaker Cannon and those now conducting the affairs of the government. Trusts have fattened by prevailing conditions, while the great mass of the people have been swindled by adulterations and the lives of equally as many more menaced by unsavory food, unsound meat and other necessaries of life controlled by sharks who aid in keeping the republican party in power. It has been a success for such parties.

The press reports of the prospective defeat of Governor Cummins, of Iowa, in his contest for renomination are hardly borne out by private advices. The battle is a close one, and has been waged by the "stand-patters with a total disregarded of fairness. But there is yet room for belief that the undoubted choice of the people may find expression in the action of the convention. There seems to be no doubt that but for the active interposition of Secretary Shaw, in the effort to save himself from defeat as an avowed candidate for the presidency, Governor Cummins would have carried the State with a rush. The Des Moines Register and Leader says that never before in the history of the republican party in Iowa has there been such foul practice in the conduct of a political campaign.

Washington, June 19.

President Roosevelt and Senator Beveridge had a conference over the meat inspection bill this morning. "The House has put back all the teeth of my bill that they pulled out in the first place" said Senator Beveridge after his talk with the President. "One of the teeth that they restored is filled, perhaps, but it is still a serviceable tooth and will do good work." Soon after Senator Beveridge left the White House, Judge S. W. Cowan, who played a prominent part in the councils preliminary to the drawing of the Beveridge bill, called at the White House and had a talk with the President.

The Navy Department has advices from Commander Southerland, in charge of the American ships about Santo Domingo, stating that the revolution has again broken out in the neighborhood of Monte Christi. The Paducah has sailed from Macoris on the south side of the island of Samana Bay, on the north side. There is reason to believe that the revolutionists swoop over the Haitian border and commit depredations in Santo Domingo, only to retire when hard pressed. The Navy advice of the present disturbance indicate that the trouble is serious. The Leonidas, a collier, has sailed from League Island yard for Santo Domingo with coals for the flotilla.

The House committee on appropriation today authorized favorable report on a bill appropriating not to be exceed $25,000 annually for the traveling expenses of the President of the United States. Chairman Tawney was authorized to get the bill up under suspension of the rules tomorrow, when it will probably be passed.

The conferrees of the two Houses of Congress on the naval appropriation bill are having a struggle over the provision for the construction of the monster battleship of the "Dreadnought" type. The second partial report of their work on the naval bill was agreed to by the Senate today, and the bill again sent to conference with the House. The House managers are standing for an outright appropriation for the ship, while the Senate conferees insist that the government be not committed to the policy of building such big ships until after the secretary has submitted plans, bids, cost, etc, to the next session of Congress for its approval.

Secretary Bonaparte, of the navy, has approved the verdict of the court martial which tried Lieut. Commander Edward T. Witherspoon, navigating officer of the United States battleship Rhode Island, by which the officer was found guilty of various charges in connection with the recent grounding of that vessel. Lieut. Commander Witherspoon was sentenced to lose 10 numbers in his grade and this is approved by the secretary. The court also sentenced him to be publicly reprimanded, but this portion of the punishment is remitted. Witherspoon was tried in conjunction with Captain Perry Garst, commander of the ship, who was sentenced yesterday to six months suspension on half pay and the loss of five numbers in his grade.

President Roosevelt has agreed to the proposition of the San Francisco delegation headed by ex Governor Lane, of California, to which the Secretary of the Treasury has already given his approval, that the government place $12,000,000 of treasury funds on deposit in the San Francisco banks on the security of City of San Francisco bonds. The term of years during which the deposits may remain has not yet been determined, but Secretary Shaw has given his assurance that they will not be called in until the treasury needs them. The delegation called at the White House and after their departure made the announcement.

After the cabinet meeting this afternoon, Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte gave out the following list of Baltimore appointments as having been decided upon: United States Attorney, John C. Rose, reappointed; United States Marshal, John F. Langhammer, reappointed; Assistant Treasurer, C. C. Pusey, of Havre de Grace; Appraiser of Merchandise, J. Carlisle Wilmer, of Charles county; Naval Officer of the Port, J. Stewart McDonald.

Not content with saying that bird feathers shall not be worn in the hat, the Germans are going a step further, according to Consul F. S. Hannah, of Magdeburg, and prohibit women from wearing dress trains within city limits. The health commission in the city of Nordhausen took the lead in this matter, holding that the danger to health and the personal annoyance of the due raised by the sweeping of trains justified such action. At first they were prohibited along certain promenades, then the men became bold and put the ban upon dress trains worn o any of the streets in the city. The present penalty for violating the ordinance is a fine not to exceed $7.14, or imprisonment for a corre pounding number of days.

A blow was aimed at the St. Louis bridge trust by the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce today. It authorized a favorable report on the bill by Representative Bartholdt, of that city, authorizing the municipality to construct a free bridge over the Mississippi river. There was considerable rivalry on the subject between Representative Barth ldt and his democratic colleagu e from St. Louis who had also prepared a bill, but Mr. Bartholdt's was finally approved.

Nominations were made by the President today as follows: To be Minister to Norway, Herbert H. D. Pearce, of Mass.; to be Third Assist. Secretary of State, Huntington Wilson, of Illinois.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, June 19.

SENATE.

When the Senate received the agricultural appropriation bill from the House with the beef amendment attached, it went to the table without the usual request being made for a conference.

Mr. Proctor, chairman of the agriculture committee, asked that it lie on the table till the beef amendment could be printed. It was so ordered.

Tomorrow the beef amendment will probably be adopted and the rest of the bill be sent to conference.

HOUSE.

In the House, this morning, Representative Wadsworth, of New York, chairman of the House committee on agriculture, reported the agricultural appropriation bill, with the new provision on meat inspection, as agreed on yesterday, and approved by President Roosevelt, as well as Speaker Cannon. It was referred to the committee of the whole House on the state of the union. It is the intention to pass it today.

The House today passed the Senate militia bill, increasing the annual amount contributed by the Federal government to the State militia organizations from one to two million dollars. The additional amount is mainly for rifle practice.

The meat inspection measure, yesterday agreed on by the House committee on Agricultural and approved by President Roosevelt was passed by the House today, as an amendment to the Agricultural appropriation bill.

Mr. Lamb, of Virginia, ranking democratic member of the committee, voiced the minority proposition that the packers be compelled to pay for the inspection.

Mr. Williams and Mr. DeArmond also contended that the packers should pay for the inspection.

The Bartholdt bill, granting the city of St. Louis the right to build a free bridge over the Mississippi river, passed the House this afternoon.

News of the Day.

Col. W. Lumpkin, a Confederate soldier, has entered the campaign in South Carolina for Senator Tillman's seat.

After devoting most of the session to further debate of the Lake Erie and Ohio river canal scheme, the Senate yesterday passed that bill.

The Farmers State bank of Clearfield, Iowa, has been closed by the state examiner. Notes to a large amount are said to be the cause of the suspension. The bank denies signing the notes.

Mrs. Carl F. Bode, wife of one of the best known engineers on the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad, was deliberately shot to death yesterday in Salida, Colo., by Mrs. Harold Hutchinson, wife of a switchman, who accused her of having been too friendly with Hutchinson.

The basis of a complete agreement on the meat inspection legislation yesterday was an arrangement between the President and Speaker Cannon representing the House committee. Concessions were named by both sides. The government will pay the cost of inspection, and there will be no court review.

A dispatch from Columbus, O., says that the trouble that has existed for some time between the operators and miners in Ohio, was finally settled today. The strike has been declared off, and the men have been ordered to resume work. One clause in the settlement agreement provides for the return of union men to the mines in eastern Ohio.

Exhausted and almost unconscious, Benjamin Scott, a lad of ten years, was found yesterday afternoon tied down on the rails of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad between Fort Edward and Sandy Hill, New York. A track walker found the boy and released him just in time to save him from being crushed by a train. The boy, who lives in Fort Edwards, said that he had been seized while on his way home by two young men, who, after lashing him, secured him across the rails and left him. How long he had lain there he could not say, but it is supposed that he must have been there for more than an hour.

Robbery and Assault.

Raleigh, N. C., 19.—Freeman Jones, a negro, has been captured a dja el t Duram, N. C., for criminal assault on Mrs. J. W. Barker, of that county last Sunday night. He entered the residence occupied by Mrs. Barker, and her mother and after robbing the house assaulted both women. During the last few weeks they have been a halt dozen cases of criminal assaults on unprotected white girls and women by negroes in this State.

THE KIDNAPPED BOY.

As was stated in the Gazette, Freddie Muth who was enticed away from school in Philadelphia last Tuesday by means of a note to the principal stating that the boy's mother was ill, has been found.

The note was delivered by a district messenger boy, who had been directed to take it to school by a seedy-looking man and who turned the child over to the stranger at the street corner near the school. The messenger boy saw the man take Freddie by the hand and walk away with him.

The abductor was identified as John Joseph Kean, a former stock broker, who afterward engaged in the real estate business, and as collector for a real estate man is said to have embezzled $400.

In a letter sent to the parents the kidnapper threatened to kill the boy and himself if the ransom was not forthcoming, but an offer to pay the amount elicited a new demand.

Kean is under indictment in New York on the charge of stealing $25,000 from the Harlem River Bank while its bookkeeper.

Freddie, with his book still under his arm, was welcomed home by more than a thousands persons. The whole city had been on the anxious bench, as it were, for a week, awaiting tidings of the child, and when the news came that he had been found it was flashed to all parts of the city.

The crowd cheered as the little fellow was hurried into the house and into his mother's waiting arms. The scene within the home was most affecting, and while the mother was listening to the child's story the house was closed to all callers.

Later reporters were permitted to question the boy, but he seemed too much dazed to give a connected story of his adventures. He was still much frightened. In answer to questions, the child said:

"The man took me on one car and then on another, and put me in a house where there were no chairs. He locked the door. I was afraid and cried. He told me to stop crying as I would soon see my mamma.

"I cried all the time, and went to sleep. The man folded a coat and put it under me. The next day in the daytime he brought bread and milk and some oysters. I cried again, and the man said I would see mamma soon. That day he went out to get something and locked the doors.

"I went to a window and saw some boys and ladies looking up at me. I tried to lift the window to talk to them, but the man came back. He closed the shutters and told me to stay away from the windows. I asked him why he was hiding, and he said the police were after me. I got awful frightened.

"Two or three times we heard noises down stairs, and the man took me on the roof and we went into the next house. The man said they were policemen. The man gave me pennies and told me not to make a noise. We were going some place when a lot of men and policemen caught the man."

Despite the elaborate precautions of the police, Kean attempted suicide in his cell at the city hall in Philadelphia last night by as unique methods as he has employed since he stole the jeweler's child. Guards watched his brilliantly lighted cell until midnight, when the reserve forces are changed at the hall. Kean made a hole in his trousers pocket and through it tore length after length from his shirt and undershirt. These he twisted into a ropelike cord when the guards were changed at midnight. Kean lay upon his cot. He tied the rope about his neck and twisted it tightly. Only one thing prevented him from carrying out his purpose. This was that he could not control his breathing during the semi-unconsciousness that followed.

When the new guards returned, shortly before 1 o'clock, they thought that Kean was sleeping until they heard his peculiar breathing. When they rushed into his cell, Kean was nearly dead, but the efforts of the police surgeons saved him. "Why didn't you let me die?" said Kean, then conscious. "Surely that would have satisfied the law."

Kean told the police in his statement that he abducted the boy primarily to secure the $400 he had embezzled from Charles J. Cooke. In addition, he said, he is in debt, with no means of providing for his family. He said he never intended to harm the boy, and declared the statements he made in his letters to Mr. Muth that the child was being dosed with whisky were untrue. He kept Freddie quiet by giving him candy and pennies, he said.

Philadelphia, June 19.—By this evening, John Joseph Kean may be in the Eastern Penitentiary. With the child-stealer at last in its grasp, the machinery of the law was greased over night for a record-breaking trip from magistrate to prison cell, where the man will probably spend the better part of the remainder of his life, for abducting Freddie Muth. At ten o'clock he faced the magistrate. In less than an hour the testimony against him had been heard though; five minutes later the grand jury was hearing the testimony of the kidnapped boy, and the moment the latter had finished, telling his story of the abduction, the grand jury by a unanimous vote had found a true bill of indictment. The finding was at once reported to Judge Mayer Sulzberger, sitting in the Quarter Session court, No. 453, and the kidnapper was immediately taken there and placed in the dock and trial soon followed. The jury subsequently returned its verdict and the judge sentenced Kean to 20 years imprisonment.

Suicide from Insomnia.

Camden, N. J., June 19.—William B. Clark, 76 years old, clerk of the bureau of Charities, hanged himself at his home 1478 Broadway at six o'clock this morning. He attached the rope to a rail of the stairway and jumped over the banister. He had been suffering from insomnia.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Railroad Rate Hearing.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., June 19.—As a result of an agreement on both sides the Corporation Commission has decided to adjourn the rate hearing this afternoon till June 27th. Comptroller A. H. Plant, of the Southern, was still testifying at adjournment, and will resume the stand upon the reconvening on the 27th. The hearing is becoming very monotonous and no one can conjecture when it will end.

Massacre of Jews.

Berlin, June 19.—Prominent Jews here have received information in regard to numerous anti-Semitic riots which have taken place in various parts of Russia following the outbreak at Bialystok.

At Kostroma, capital of a district of the same name, two hundred miles northeast of Moscow, a mob invaded the Ghetto and plundered and demolished the homes and shops of Jews unhindered. The buildings were finally given over to the torch.

At Elizabeth Orthodox Greek Church priests incited the populace to attack the Jews and bloody riots resulted. At Bogelopoi, in the province of Volhynia, the local authorities posted placards containing a proclamation summoning the loyal population of the town to exterminate the Jews, who are revolutionists and enemies of the fatherland.

At Saroki, in Besarabia, the authorities placarded a telegram from St. Petersburg, which read: "Death to the Jews. Kill them all," and signed "Nicholas."

The peasants, believing that the command really came from the Emperor, made violent attacks upon the Jews, killing many.

At Jitomir, five Jew-baiting agitators from St. Petersburg organized formidable riots, in which Jews were the victims.

At Miessin wealthy gentiles of the place, who hate the Jews, publicly offered monetary rewards for effective Jew-baiting. The scale of remuneration for outrages against the Jews was $5 to every one who killed a Jew; $2 to every one who wounded a Jew; $1 for every male Jewish babe killed. As the result of the posting of this offer, peasants of the district are gathering and arming themselves for the purpose of earning rich rewards by the murder of Jews.

Anti-Seminite riots have also been organized at Ploco, Kutnlow, Powicz, Kielec, Tomzi, Gremenz. No details of the casualties have yet been received.

Attempt to Assassinate Gen. Trepoff.

London, June 19.—An attempt to assassinate General Trepoff, commandant of the palace at St. Petersburg, is reported in dispatches from that city received today. The attempt was made by a woman acting in behalf of the revolutionists, who gained access to the general's presence and tried to shoot him. The woman, who is a nihilist, posed as the Princess Marishin. She sought, by means of forged letters and documents, to arrange an interview with the Czar. She was forced to wait in Trepoff's office. When the general entered she arose and tried to shoot him. Her action was so sudden that it attracted the attention of a guard who was able to seize her arm and turn the weapon upward before she could shoot. The woman was disarmed without firing a shot.

Husband's Terrible Deed.

Philadelphia, June 19.—While his wife, Pauline, was lying asleep in bed at her home, 3801 Archer street, Nicetown, at the side of her bereaved daughter Catharine, the body of whose husband was awaiting burial, John Schultz, aged 45 years, stole into the house at 3 o'clock this morning, stabbed his wife in the stomach and then shot her in the face. The woman's daughter, Catharine, vainly tried to prevent the murderous attack, but the enraged husband turned the pistol upon her. "For God's sake, father, don't kill me," cried the daughter, and the man turning the weapon on himself, fired a bullet into his right temple and then, to make his self-destruction more certain, stabbed himself in the stomach and cut his throat. The noise of the shots awakened the mourners who had gathered to attend a wake which had been held over the body of William Fischer, Schultz's son in-law, last night, and who had remained in the house. An alarm was given and Schultz ran out of the house. The Twenty-second street patrol was hurried to the house and Mrs. Schultz was carried from the blood spattered bed at the side of her daughter, who had swooned, and hurried to the Samaritan hospital. While the patrol was speeding toward the hospital Garwood and Stephens, patrolmen, saw Schultz still running three squares away, at 17th street and Pulaski avenue. Although staggering from loss of blood he made a feeble resistance when the policemen pounced upon him. He was carried into the patrol and placed at the side of the wife he tried to murder. At the hospital the physicians say that Schultz has probably accomplished his purpose of murder and suicide. They believe the condition of both is hopeless and that either may die today. Schultz and his wife had been estranged and separated for some weeks.

Body Found on Pilot.

Dunkirk, N. Y., June 19.—The lifeless body of George Frank, of Erie, Pa., was found sitting bolt upright, on the pilot of the locomotive drawing Lake Shore train No 28, the Twentieth Century Limited, when the train was flagged under orders at Union depot shortly before one o'clock this morning. His eyes were wide open and staring, and in one clenched hand he held a whip. His legs were so tightly wedged in between the slats of the pilot that it took the united efforts of the entire train crew and five minutes' time to extricate the body. The remains were sent back to Erie on train No. 11. A carriage containing the man was struck by the limited at Peach street, Erie. The horse and carriage were cut to pieces.

Killed by an Assassin.

New York, June 19.—A man, supposed to be Antonio Carmado, of No. 149 Columbia street, Brooklyn, was shot and killed by an unknown assassin early this morning on Harrison street, between Henry street and Strong Place, that borough. The police are endeavoring to find a clue to the murderer.

Robbed in Tenderloin District.

New York, June 19.—A man who gave his name as Wilson T. Canden, a lawyer, of Baltimore, reported to the police this morning that he had been robbed of $200 in cash, a gold watch and chain, and a diamond pin, early today in the Bohemia, a resort in the Tenderloin. Canden said that his folks are in Europe and that he came over from Baltimore to spend a day or two seeing the sights of the metropolis. He is stopping at the Hotel Victoria. Canden said that while in the Bohemia he met two short men with long thirsts. They were very friendly, and several rounds of drinks were ordered. When he left the resort he discovered his loss and with rather unsteady steps he made his way to the Thirtieth street police station where he poured into the ears of the sergeant his tale of woe. The police promised to do all in their power to find the two short men.

Steamer Still Aground.

New York, June 19.—The Italian steamer Vincenzo Bonnano which ran ashore on Fire Island Sunday night, while bound from Mediterranean ports for New York, is still fast on the beach. The sea is comparatively smooth and the prospects of floating her today are considered favorable. The wrecking tugs W. F. Chapman and I. J. Merritt are near the Bonnano, this morning, and preparations are being completed to drag the vessel into deep water on the next high tide. Captain Noero and his entire crew left the Bannano last evening, and spent the night on shore. When the wrecking tugs are ready to cast hawsers to the Bonnano, Captain Noero, the officers and some of the crew return to the vessel in life boats to superintend the work of floating the stranded steamer.

Assaulted by a Negro.

Lynchburg, Va., June 19.—Ned Bryant, a negro, was brought here for safe keeping early this morning, and lodged in jail. Bryant was arrested at Rustburg, late yesterday afternoon charged with attempting criminal assault, his victim being the six-year-old daughter of Reese Evans, of Rustburg. The negro lured the girl to a stable at her uncle's in Rustburg, and threatened to kill her if she made an outcry. The child screamed, however, and the negro fled. He was captured and held to the grand jury. Feeling against him was so intense that it was decided to bring him here to prevent lynching.

Collieries Flooded.

Mahanoy City, Pa., June 19.—Workmen were routed out of bed during the night to boost the mules from the collieries in this region, which are flooded as a result of heavy rains that began with a cloudburst Sunday afternoon. Pumps are submerged at a number of collieries, but are kept running at capacity. It will be a week before the collieries will be in condition to resume. Meanwhile 10,000 men and boys will be without employment.

Alleged Bigamist.

The mysterious disappearance of Miss Josephine Hood, one of the most popular young women in Asheville, N. C., society, who was married to Mr. John C. Cavendish, in New Iberia, La., December 16th last, has assumed features sensational in the extreme. The couple left New Iberia immediately for a trip to Mexico, in which country Cavendish was supposed to be the owner of large fruit properities. Since their departure no word has been received by Miss Hood's relatives in regards to her whereabouts, and all efforts to trace her have failed. The family of the young lady are now convinced that she has been the victim of foul play.

On Sunday last the chief of police of Asheville received a letter from E. R. Hood, of New Iberia, a brother of Miss Josephine Hood, in which he states that he positively identifies a photograph of "Lord Percy Sholto Reginald Douglas," alias John C. Cavendish, alias Duncan, one of the most notorious bigamists in the country, as that of the man who married his sister.

Cavendish, who posed as "Lord Douglas," married Miss Hobbs, a beautiful young woman, residing on Fortieth street, Lambert's Point, Norfolk, January 19, 1905. After carrying her across the continent to California, and thence to Monterey, Mexico, he deserted her, and left her penniless to get back home to Virginia as best she could. Before leaving, he robbed her of $100 and a valuable gold watch.

While in Virginia Cavendish claimed to be Percy Sholto Reginald Douglas, son of the Marquis of Queensberry. He said that he had fought in the Boer war against Great Britain, and was then exiled, but expected to receive his pardon May 1, 1905, when he would return to England and take his place in the court of England. He accepted a position at Lambert's Point at a very nominal salary. He remained but a short time. Mrs. B. E. A. Douglas, the Fort Worth wife, stated that Douglas had also lived at Alexandria, Va., and had a wife and one child in this city.

Under the name of Lord Douglas, he married a woman in South Bend, Ind., whom he also took to Monterey, Mex., and a few days after their arrival in that city he robbed her of $700, tried to kill her with a padlock, and then fled, leaving her destitute. In Denver, Col., he married a woman under the name of "Duncan," and subsequently deserted her.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 19, 11 a. m.—The most important incident in the market today was the pulling of the peg in the Interborough corporation which has been causing the stock to break ½. The announcement of the success of the Pennsylvania loan was regarded before the opening as an important bull factor in the general market and caused room traders to buy stocks all through the first hour. Prices for nearly everything traded in made advances ranging from ¼ to 3 points.

A dispatch from Roanoke says that Chief of Police William Renfro, of Dorchester, was shot and killed at that place, Sunday night, by unknown persons. Renfro heard shooting in the suburbs of the town, and went to investigate it. Upon arriving at the scene of the disturbance, he was fired upon, two shots taking effect, and causing his death at an early hour yesterday morning. Renfro, in a statement made just before he died, said he did not recognize his assailants. So far, there is no clew to their identity.

Storms in Virginia.

One of the severest electrical and rain storms known in Petersburg and vicinity for years set in Sunday afternoon, and continued for some time after midnight. The electric lights in St. Paul's Church were extinguished by lightning, and one of the male members of the choir was badly shocked by the current. The service could not be held at the church. In the neighboring counties the storm was as severe as it was in Petersburg, and in some sections the rain came down in torrents for six hours. The crops especially were very badly washed, and many county bridges have been carried away by the freshet caused by the heavy rains. Near Reams station, in Dinwiddie county, on the Atlantic Coast Line railway, there was a very heavy hailstorm and cotton was badly cut to pieces.

The northern portion of Page county was visited yesterday by a severe hailstorm. The storm destroyed farm products to the amount of thousands of dollars. Corn has been cut to pieces and beaten to the ground. Wheat in many places has been threshed out by the hail as completely as if done by machinery.

Death of Gov. Pattison.

Gov. John M. Pattison, of Ohio, died at 4:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home, Promant, at Milford, about fifteen miles from Cincinnatti, after having been asleep since 7 p. m. Sunday.

John M. Pattison was born in Clarmont county, Ohio, on June 13, 1847, and retained his home there during his entire life. As a democratic leader in the State Senate he supported legislation for a more stringent observation of the Sabbath. His position on this subject was well known when he received the democratic nomination for Governor one year ago, and it was because of this that the Anti-Saloon League gave him its support.

Andrew Lintner Harris, republican lieutenant governor, last night became governor to fill out Pattison's term. Harris took the oath before Judge Fisher, of the Common Pleas Court.

In the political history of Ohio, since the adoption of the new constitution, three democratic governors have been elected, with lieutenant governors of the opposite political faith, and John M. Pattison was concerned in every administration following such election.

Arrest of Rosie Moore.

An arrest which the United States authorities consider of much importance was made yesterday, when Rosie Moore, aged 45 years, who lives in this city, was taken in custody by United States Deputy Marshal William Zimmerman, of Baltimore, and locked up at the central police station, in that city. The woman is charged with receiving stolen goods. She will be brought before United States Commissioner Bond today.

The arrest was somewhat sensational, as the woman was taken into custody on a house boat named the Little Rosebud, in the Potomac river, but in Maryland water, in the vicinity of Jones's Point. According to the warrant issued for the arrest of the woman she is charged with receiving clothing, equipment, cartridge boxes, bayonets and other articles from United States soldiers.

The woman, it is alleged by the United States authorities, would receive various articles belonging to the United States government from soldiers and dispose of them. While on the boat, it is charged, the soldiers secured civilian clothes, in which they would make their escape, thus deserting the government service.

The warrant was sworn out before Commissioner Bond by Capt. J. H. Davis, commandant of Fort Hunt, last Friday.

Officer Knight, of this city, and Sergeant Day and Private Rogers, of Fort Hunt, accompanied the United States Marshal and aided in arresting the woman, who was placed on the Washington police boat Vigilant and taken to that city and subsequently to Baltimore. The arrest was made shortly after four o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The Moore woman apparently did a thriving business with soldiers as her principal customers. The boat is about fifty feet long and twenty feet in width and comfortably appointed. It contains eight rooms besides a well equipped bar. It cost about $2,000 and was built in this city about a year ago. It was at one time anchored about 60 miles down the river.

The houseboat, which is known as the "Little Rosebud," had been lying off River View, within a short distance of Fort Hunt, but Saturday night it was moved farther up the river. When the boat was boarded by the officers a well-filled buffet was found aboard, and, incidentially, Captain Davis ran afoul of one of his men, who was on a 30-day furlough, on the boat with his sweetheart, who said she was a married woman of Alexandria.

Today U. S. Commissioner Garnett, on complaint of Capt. H. C. Davis, at Fort Hunt, issued a warrant for the search of the resorts on north Lee street. U. S. Deputy Marshal Glover, accompanied by Capt. Davis and Officer Beach, went into the houses where it was supposed stolen goods were secreted, and in that occupied by Rosie Moore they found blankets belonging to the U. S. government. Nothing was found in the other houses searched. It is said that a large bundle of articles, believed to belong to the government, was taken from the house boat last Saturday night.

New Steamer Jamestown.

The new side-wheel steamer Jamestown of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, which was built at the shipyard at Newport News, is now practically complete. Mr. John Callahan, general manager of the steamboat company, has gone to Newport News to receive the steamer from the hands of the builders. The steamer yesterday had her trial trip for speed on a course from the Thimble Shoal light house in Hampton Roads, to the capes of the Chesapeake and return.

The new steamer developed a speed of more than 20 miles an hour. She was built for 18 miles.

The Jamestown will leave Newport News tomorrow morning and is expected to pass this city about 6 o'clock p. m. the same day. A number of steamboat men throughout the country several of the officials of the Norfolk and Washington Company, and others, have been invited by the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company to make the trip from Old Point to this city. The Washington party will leave here on the Norfolk and Washington line steamer to-night and will board the Jamestown at Old Point. The trip will be a speed test also, and the time of the steamer will be taken from Thimble Shoal to Maryland Point and perhaps farther up the river. Saturday next the new steamer will make her first trip on the river with several hundred guests from this city and Washington aboard, and those who make the trip will be given every opportunity to view the new boat.

Proposed Apartment House.

A meeting of the subscribers to the apartment house to be located in Alexandria was held at the rooms of the Business Men's League at 3.30 p. m. yesterday.

Mr. M. B. Harlow called the meeting to order. Mr. J. M. Hill was called to the chair and Mr. C. C. Leadbeater was named for secretary.

Mr. Hill stated that the object of the meeting was to elect officers preparatory to obtaining a charter. He stated that the success of the project was assured. The following were then nominated and unanimously elected: J. M. Hill, President; W. A. Smoot jr., Vice President; Henry J. Blauvelt, of Washington, secretary; George B. White, of Washington, treasurer.

On motion of Mr. Harlow a committee of five was appointed to look into the matter of a suitable site for the apartment house and report to a future meeting of the stock-holders. The following were thereupon appointed: Messrs. J. M. Hill, Geo. B. White, H. J. Blauvelt, Jas. F. Muir and C. C. Leadbeater.

The meeting then adjourned.

The capital stock of the company will be $150,000, one third of which it is proposed to raise in Alexandria.

A little boy named Priest had one of his hands painfully mashed at the Alexandria laundry today.

Luna Park.

The famous Navassar Ladies' Band of forty accomplished lady musicians will occupy the great musical shell at Luna Park this week, and Miss Ella Zuila, England's greatest high wire artist, will come to the park direct from an extended engagement at Crystal Palace, London. The Navassar band is undoubtedly the greatest band of lady musicians now before the American public, and will afford excellent musical treats for the Luna Park patronage. Several well-known soloists are with the aggregation, and will be heard both at the afternoon and evening concerts. Friday evening, June 22d, will be devoted to popular and ragtime music, as usual. Madame Ella Zuila will perform twice each day during her engagement. She performs the most difficult feats on a high wire not more than one quarter of an inch in thickness and stretched across the park eighty feet above the ground. She uses no net, nor any other means of safety, which makes her act all the more thrilling and dangerous. All the attractions along "The Trail" are now in operation. There are the Egyptian Palmist, the Hindoo Miracle Workers, the Tours of the World, and many other interesting and instructive concessions. The shoot-the-chute, merry-go-round, circle swing, roller coaster, and other open air attractions are also now in full swing. The performances of Mr. Lincoln Beachey in his airship have been among the most interesting features ever withessed in this neighborhood. The exceptionally good order preserved at the park is pleasant to contemplate. The patrons are people who enjoy innocent amusement, and the congeniality of the large concourse is noticeable by all who mingle with them. The management in fitting up the resort have met a long-felt want to thousands living in Alexandria, Washington and the surrounding country.

All-Steel Passenger Car.

The first all steel passenger car for a railroad, made in the United States, was shipped by the Pressed Steel Car Company of Pittsburg, Pa., last week to Atlantic City, where it was exhibited at the convention of the Master Car Builders. This week the car will be taken to Washington, where it will begin active service immediately on the Southern Railway. The car is the first of an order of three which was placed by the Southern Railway as an experiment. If these three prove to be successful, the entire passenger equipment of the Southern Railway will be replaced by steel cars. The steel car is 74 feet 6 inches in length, 66 feet inside length, 9 feet 10 inches wide and 14 feet 2 inches high. The entire car is made of pressed steel, and what little wood is used in the trimmings is absolutely fireproof. Even the floor of the car is of steel, so that it would be impossible for the car to take fire. The car possesses many advantages. In addition to being non inflammable, it could not be telescoped in a wreck, and the ends cannot be smashed in. The greatest disadvantage is in weight. This car weighs about 15 per cent. more than the ordinary wooden day coach. It is expected, however, that the weight can be reduced about 5 per cent.

"South Befo' and During De Wah."

Miss Belle Emerson will give an entertainment at the Opera House on June 25th for the benefit of the Baptist Mission Church. She has come highly recommended, endorsed by the press and the public. Her work is original and she has labored three years on her picture and wishes to give the public something entirely new. Besides this Miss Emerson is a high-class vocalist and Tyrolean warbler, and is today considered America's greatest negro impersonator. Her work is humorous, high-class, patriotic and instructive. Fifty different southern melodies accompany the work and must be seen to be appreciated.

Among the cases before Justice Caton in the Police Court today was that of a young matron who complained that a resident of this city in whose house the plaintiff lives was endeavoring to prevent her from taking possession of her baby, she having determined to move to another city. The defendant claimed that the woman is not a proper person to have charge of the child. The justice referred the mother to the Corporation Court in which she can institute suit for possession of the child.

All Night in a Balloon.

After spending the whole night in the air, Dr. Julian P. Thomas and Charles Levee, who sailed from the foot of east 138th street, New York, Sunday afternoon in the big balloon Nirvana, landed safely at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning at south New Berlin, N. Y. The trip occupied fourteen hours. The place where the balloon landed is 212 miles from New York by rail, but the balloon went in a roundabout way and actually traversed 350 miles.

From what Dr. Thomas said of his trip it was thrilling in the extreme. All night long the aeronauts as they were blown to the northward were in the midst of a brilliant electrical storm. Dr. Thomas said the experience was one he will never forget. There was an element of danger about it that added to the interest, but Mr. Levee assured him that they were as safe in the air as in trying to get to the ground, and they remained up until observation showed them a safe landing place.

At times the balloon attained an altitude of two miles. Long distances were covered at an altitude of 3,000 feet. During the night the aeronauts passed over the mountain ranges of northern New Jersey and southern New York, going over the Catskills at their greatest altitude.

The many imitations of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve that are now before the public prove it the best. Ask for DeWitt's. Good for burns, scalds, chaffed skin, eczema, tetter, cuts, bruises, boils and piles. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Shot by Spring Gun.

Robert Walker was shot, and, it is thought, fatally wounded about 12 o'clock Sunday night by a spring gun concealed in the barn of his neighbor, U. B. Kenney, in the upper part of Jefferson county, W. Va. Some months ago Kenney's barn was burned and Walker was arrested on the charge of setting fire to it, but was acquitted. Bad blood existed between the two men prior to the burning, but they became friends after Walker's acquittal. Kenney erected a new barn and fixed a spring gun that would be fired by opening the door. On Sunday night Kenney and his family were aroused by the firing of the gun, and went out to find Walker writhing on the ground, the full charge of small shot entering his groin. He was picked up and cared for, but it is feared he cannot recover.

A Miraculous Cure.

The following statement, by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, Pa., will interest parents and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." It's the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. Guaranteed. 50c and $1.00 at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Notfce to City Tax Payers.

Collector's Office, June 16, 1906.

Notice is hereby given that the tax-bills for 1906, are now in the hands of the collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of this year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1906, the collector of taxes shall allow a discount of ten per cent., and on all bills paid by the 1st of September, 1906, he shall allow a discount of five per cent, and on all bills not paid by the first day of December, 1906, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1907, damages at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be paid."

Tax payers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as the collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS!

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Alexandria, Va., June 8, 1906.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the Dog or Canine species should come forward on or before JUNE TWENTY-FIFTH, 1906, and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring Dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $3 or $5.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two Dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such Dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

The police officers will be required to report all violations of this law.

☞In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.

FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.
